

History

A Level

Exam Board: AQA

Subject Specific Criteria:

- Grade 5 in GCSE History
- Grade 5 in GCSE English Language
- Grade 4 in GCSE Mathematics

Units Studied:

The Quest for Political Stability: Germany
1871-1991

The English Civil War 1625-1660

Coursework focused on the American Civil Rights Movement

Course Information:

You will focus on Paper 1 on a longer term study looking at the way Germany developed. In Paper 2, you will complete an in depth study of the English Civil War focusing on the 35-year period. Your coursework will combine the skills from both papers and require independent research.

Skills Required:

- Analytical skills
- A good level of literacy skills
- An enquiring mind

Futures:

A preferred A-level at all universities, which teaches you how to critically think, research and write extended essays.

A wide range of both public and private sector occupations are open to people with a History qualification. History should usually be taken if Law is to be studied at university.

Subject Enrichment:

There are lots of opportunities to visit museums locally. There is a huge amount of films and documentaries to enrich your learning.

Student Quote

'The skills learnt in History will be helpful for university and future careers.'