

Student Leadership

The student leadership offer at Beckfoot Oakbank:

- Students make a committed contribution to the school and society who own their learning experience.
- Students earn the esteem of others and have the belief that they can change things for the better.
- Students develop skills that make them ready for success in the future.

Student Leadership will be linked into the whole school rewards policy so all students can earn the right to be a student leader. The rewards policy for stamps is below:

1 star student	3 star student	4 star student	5 star student

Below is a summary of the responsibilities each of the strands have in school life:

Events Team

- Supporting school (evening) events in the marketing and promotion within the community.
- Plan and support charity events that Beckfoot Oakbank can get involved in.
- Promote events happening in the local community that Beckfoot Oakbank can help participate in.

Health and Wellbeing Team:

- Raise profile of wellbeing and mental health in school.
- Promotion of healthy living and sport participation in and out of school.
- Promotion of DofE.
- Be heavily involved with Sports Day.

Voice Team

- Collect student voice to raise issues in the school and the wider community.
- Run Votes for Schools agenda for the tutor programme and use as a vehicle for positive change.
- Start being leaders of their learning working with faculty areas shaping their learning experience.
- Create a 'you said, we did' display each term.

Student Leadership Board:

- Meet with Mrs Berry once a month to discuss and debate key ideas and issues from the three strands. Present ideas / proposals to SLT and hold assemblies.
- Responsible for the display and marketing of student leadership across the Beckfoot Oakbank.
- Promote the student leadership offer at all levels within school by being role models.

All 3 star Bronze badge and above student leaders will be available for the school's interview process and showing visitors around school.
